Furthermore students have to pay attention to the following arrangements:

- If students wish to come to school for self study, starting from 27th February (Tue) the school has arranged a Study Room (G10) for Form 6 students. Students should follow the Study Room regulations printed in the student handbook. Any breach of these rules will result in the right of use being withdrawn.
Students can only come to school at the following times: (This also applies for Oral Practice)
 1st session: 8:45 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.
 2nd session: 10:30 a.m. - 10:45 a.m.
 3rd session: Lunch Hour (5 minutes before the 7th period)
 Students must wear school uniform to school. For school safety, students are allowed to leave during lunch hour and after school only.
 Students in the Study Room must make good use of the facilities and do their utmost to study. In avoidance of disturbing the other classes, any other sorts of activities are prohibited in the Study Room.
- Since the Secondary 1 Discretionary Places Interview will take place on 3rd March (Sat), all school facilities will be unavailable for other purposes on that day. Students are not allowed to come to school.
- F.6 students' ePayment account will be terminated after 30th April (Mon). The account balance will be refunded in cash on 25th May (Fri).
- The 36th Graduation & Prize-giving Ceremony on 19th May (Sat) will be rescheduled to 26th May (Sat) at 3:00 p.m. in the School Hall. Students must arrive by 2:00 p.m. Furthermore, the rehearsal for Graduation & Prize-giving Ceremony will be rescheduled to 25th May (Fri). Form 6 students should wear summer uniform and come to school at 1:10 p.m. to collect their reports.
- All F.6 students should attend a seminar entitled "Preparation for Release of HKDSE Results" from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on 6th July (Fri) in the school hall. During the seminar, information concerning the school's arrangement for the release of HKDSE results, JUPAS admission procedure, application procedures for HKDSE result appeals, sub-degree programmes and other relevant matters will be outlined. Parents are welcome.
- HKDSE results will be released on 11th July (Wed). Students should come to collect the result slips at 8:30 a.m. HKDSE certificates will be ready for collection at the beginning of November. A letter of authorisation and a photocopy of the candidate's HKID card are needed if a third party is invited to collect the Certificate on your behalf. For the latest arrangement, please refer to the school website.
- If you change your address or telephone number, please inform the General Office immediately.

Yours sincerely,

Ms. Mok Kit Yue
Principal
